Manuscript Organization

Citation: Citation of reference should be done as [1], [2, 3], [4 -6] etc.

Title

Titles are of great importance for current awareness and for information retrieval. Wording of titles should be chosen carefully to provide information on the contents and to function as "points of entry" for information retrieval.

Authorship

The journal allows maximum of 7 authors for a manuscript. The work should be approved by all co-authors. One author should be designated as corresponding author with E-mail address, Postal address, Telephone/Cell no. /Fax no. All persons who have made substantial contributions to the work reported in the manuscript should be included as co-author(s) (e.g. data collection, analysis, writing, editing assistance) but who do not fulfil the authorship criteria should be named with their specific contributions in Acknowledgment.

Abstract:

Should start on a new page after the title page and should present the reason of the study, the main findings, and principal conclusions, not more than 250 words. All the three categories, Review Articles, Research papers and Short Communications should have an Abstract. Keywords: 3-6 keywords are allowed.

Introduction:

Should start on a new page and should clearly indicate the aim of the study.

Materials & Methods

This section should describe the materials and methods used in sufficient detail to allow the study to be replicated. Please include details of ethical approval in this section (if any).

Result & Discussion:

All results presented in tabular or graphical form shall be described in this section. All Tables and figures must have a title and a legend to make them self-explanatory and they should be given numbers. Tables and figures should be typed on separate sheets. Discussion should contain a critical review of the results of the study with the support of relevant literature. It can end with brief conclusions.

Conclusion

This section should contain only finding of research.

Acknowledgements:

All acknowledgments should be typed in one paragraph directly preceding the reference section.

Authors' Statements

Competing Interests

The authors declare no conflict of interest. (if authors are having conflict of interest please inform to editor in chief IAJPR)

Ethical matter

Authors using experimental animal & human subjects in their investigation must seek approval from the appropriate ethical committee. The ethical standards of experiments must be in accordance with the guidelines provided by the CPCSEA (animal) and ICMR (human).

Tables & Figures: Tables & Figures should be placed in text of manuscript at appropriate position. PLEASE DO NOT SEND TABLES & FIGURES SEPERATELY.

Tables

- Tables should be self-explanatory and should not duplicate textual material.
- Tables with more than 10 columns and 25 rows should be avoided.
- Number tables, in Arabic numerals, consecutively in the order of their first citation in the text and supply a brief title for each.
- Place explanatory matter in footnotes, not in the heading.
- Explain in footnotes all non-standard abbreviations that are used in each table.
- Obtain permission for all fully borrowed, adapted, and modified tables and provide a credit line in the footnote.
- For footnotes use the following symbols, in this sequence: *, †, ‡, §, ||, ¶, **, ††, ‡‡
- Tables with their legends should be provided at the end of the text after the references. The tables along with their number should be cited at the relevant place in the text

Illustrations (Figures)

- Upload the images in JPEG format. The file size should be within 4 MB in size while uploading.
- Figures should be numbered consecutively according to the order in which they have been first cited in the text.
- Labels, numbers, and symbols should be clear and of uniform size. The lettering for figures should be large enough to be legible after reduction to fit the width of a printed column.
- Symbols, arrows, or letters used in photomicrographs should contrast with the background and should be marked neatly with transfer type or by tissue overlay and not by pen.
- Titles and detailed explanations belong in the legends for illustrations not on the illustrations themselves.
- When graphs, scatter-grams or histograms are submitted the numerical data on which they are based should also be supplied.
- The photographs and figures should be trimmed to remove all the unwanted areas.
- If photographs of individuals are used, their pictures must be accompanied by written permission to use the photograph.
- If a figure has been published elsewhere, acknowledge the original source and submit written permission from the copyright holder to reproduce the material. A credit line should appear in the legend for such figures.
- Legends for illustrations: Type or print out legends (maximum 40 words, excluding the credit line) for illustrations using double spacing, with Arabic numerals corresponding to the illustrations. When symbols, arrows, numbers, or letters are used to identify parts of the illustrations, identify and explain each one in the legend. Explain the internal scale (magnification) and identify the method of staining in photomicrographs.
- Final figures for print production: If the images uploaded are not printable quality, the publisher office may request for higher resolution images which can be sent at the time of acceptance of the manuscript. Send sharp, glossy, un-mounted, color photographic prints, with height of 4 inches and width of 6 inches at the time of submitting the revised manuscript

- The Journal reserves the right to crop, rotate, reduce, or enlarge the photographs to an acceptable size.

References

The references should be listed on a separate sheet and should be numbered consecutively in the order in which they are first mentioned in the text (not in alphabetical order). Cite the references in the text by the appropriate number e.g. [1], [2, 3], [4-6], [7, 8-10] and the numbers should be within square brackets. Avoid using abstracts as references. Nothing should be italicized.
